PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT APTIM ENVIRONMENTAL AND INFRASTRUCTURE, LLC'S
INTERROGATORIES TO PLAINTIFF

Defendant APTIM Environmental & Infrastructure, LLC (f/k/a Optim Environmental and Infrastructure, Inc.) ("APTIM"), through its attorneys, Dudley Newman Feuerzeig LLP, hereby propounds the following interrogatories to Plaintiff pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 33 and demands answers with respect thereto within thirty (30) days after service.

INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS:

1. Responses to these interrogatories shall be responsive to the date that the responses are filed and shall be continuing in character and require the filing of supplemental responses if further or different information relative thereto becomes known before trial.
2. Except where otherwise indicated, each one of these discovery requests shall be deemed to be addressed to Plaintiff.
3. When knowledge or information of plaintiff is requested, such request includes knowledge of Plaintiff's agents, representatives, and unless privileged, their attorneys.

4. The pronoun "you" or "your" refers to Plaintiff and the persons mentioned in paragraph (3) above.
5. "Identify" when referring to a natural person means to provide an identification sufficient to notice the deposition of such person and to serve such person with process to require his or her attendance at a place of examination and shall include, without limitation, his or her full name, present or last known home address, telephone number, present or last known business affiliation and address, title or occupation, and each of the positions held by such person during the applicable time covered by any answer to referring to such person.
6. "Identity" when referring to a document means to give the following information:
 - a. its nature, e.g., letter, memorandum, tape recording, etc.;
 - b. its specific subject;
 - c. the name, title and address of the person(s) by whom it was made and to whom it was directed if it was directed to some other person;
 - d. the date upon which it was made; and
 - e. who has possession of the original and any copies.
7. The term "document" is defined to be equal in scope to the usage of the term in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a) and refers to any medium upon which intelligence or information can be recorded or retrieved, including, without limitation, the original and each copy, regardless of origin and location, of any book, pamphlet, periodical, letter, memorandum, invoice, bill, order form, receipt, financial statement, accounting entry, diary, calendar, telex, telegram, cable, report, record, contract, agreement, study, handwritten sketch, graph, index, list, tape, photograph, microfilm, data sheet or data processing card, or any other written, recorded, transcribed,

INTERROGATORY NO. 5:

Describe with specificity every fact that show or establishes Aptim owned or controlled the vehicle that was allegedly driven by Andrew or Nathan McCann.

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY NO. 5:

Objection as calling for trial strategy and legal conclusions. Notwithstanding, the facts derive from Aptim's contract, discussing its scope of services and responsibilities as contractor, Aptim's badge, and the testimony of witnesses.

Further to the terms of its contract, Aptim:

- a) was responsible for travel, lodging, and the local transportation of individuals working on the housing program where the McCanns worked;
- b) was responsible for supervising and directing the work of its subcontractors, including Navigation Construction, where the McCanns worked;
- c) was responsible for its performance and that of its subcontractors;
- d) was responsible for and/or pay for transportation necessary for proper execution and completion of work;
- e) was responsible for initiating, maintaining, and supervising all necessary or required safety programs, and
- f) was responsible for overseeing the actions of its agents such as its subcontractors regarding the events that led to injuries.

Will supplement as discovery proceeds.
